The MSRI-UP is a comprehensive program for undergraduates whose aim is to increase ethnic diversity in the mathematical sciences.

Mathematical Sciences Research Institute
Berkeley, California

June 15 – July 28, 2013

- Summer Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU)
- Topic for 2013: Algebraic Combinatorics directed by Dr. Rosa Orellana from Dartmouth College.
- Opportunities to present research at national conferences
- Guidance in navigating the graduate school and fellowship application process

- Mentoring, Workshops
- $3,100 Summer stipend
- Transportation, room and board

Applications available on December 1, 2012

For more information visit:

http://msri.org/up

or email msiup@msri.org