Are There Trees in Heaven?
By Victoria Loehle
A proposal of marriage should be as simple as a mutual “I love you” and an earnest “will you marry me?” offered in unison with a particular kind of ring. This couple, however, must face a few additional questions that are a little less than simple—with answers that are quite a bit more complex.

Silence Speaks for Me
By Kimberly Stanway
A guided goodbye to poisonous love, pain, and innocence as explored by a grieving mother, a regretful abuser, and a dead daughter.

OOPS I SMOKED CRACK AGAIN
By Emily Cafarelli
A young woman reflects on various findings she has made about herself throughout her journey of self-discovery thus far.

Foxtrot Delta Romeo
By Nicholas C. Cyganski
On 23rd July 1983, Air Canada Flight 143 runs out of fuel at 41,000 feet, halfway through its flight from Montreal to Edmonton. The aircraft’s flight data recorder (FDR) captures the heroic actions behind the cockpit door on that fateful day.

Fur Heaven’s Sake
By Dan Murray
Doctor and Doctor Schnibbles have just made a huge discovery in the field of astrophysics. On the morning of their press conference, another discovery is made in the Schnibbles household. Having switched bodies with their owners, the Schnibbles’ dog and cat must take their place in the press conference.

Psych 117
By Casey Broslawski
Sometimes life can be pretty boring, like when you’re waiting for your professor’s office hours. Sometimes dreams can be pretty exciting, like when you’re hunted by a demonic sheep-lion. What would happen if you lived somewhere between the two?

The Apathy Fairy
By Mark Swanson
A person finds a wallet on the side of the road and can’t decide what to do with it. He receives advice and guidance from some unqualified sources.

Here be PIRATES!
By Maeve McCluskey
A child discovers a secret about their older sibling which inspires imaginary madcap pirate adventures.