

Lecturer: Professor Frank Dick, (508) 831-6766, fdick@wpi.edu, office OH213C.

Office Hours: 8am to 4pm, drop by or make an appointment.

Textbook: Eugene Hecht, College Physics, 11th Edition, Schaum's Outlines, McGraw Hill 2012.

Special Needs: Contact the lecturer and the Disability Services Office (508) 831-5235 to ensure that accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. The DSO is located in Daniels Hall.

Course Online: Go to myWPI for lab assignments, schedule, solutions, grades and lecture notes.

Grade: Your grade consists of:

Exams	70%
Labs	10%
Conference	10%
Homework	10%

Exams: Exams are closed book. You may bring one sheet of hand written notes and a calculator. If you have special needs for exams make arrangements with the lecturer (see Special Needs above). Exams are based on lectures, homework, conference and labs.

Physics Help Desk: Graduate physics students are available in the Physics lounge on the 1st floor of Olin Hall at posted hours to provide one on one help to answer your physics questions.

MASH and Tutoring: You can also obtain assistance through the Academic Resource Center for Math and Science Help (MASH) and Tutoring.

Advice: The seven week course is fast paced, keep up with assignment due dates and seek help early. Attend lectures, take notes, ask questions in conference and go to Help Desk.
