Director’s Note

Almost, Maine is about love, all the pain and unbearable joy that comes with it. This show has given me the opportunity to work with incredible individuals to understand love in its purest form. At one moment in time, we have a brief look into the lives of real people. That’s what makes this show so special, it’s incredibly real.

I am constantly amazed by this show. It will leave you wanting to tell all those who matter to you that you love them. I highly recommend you do, especially because life’s too short to just wait around for the other shoe to drop. This small “township” has become our springboard and allowed us to find comfort, joy and humor in falling. If you’re really lucky, you may catch yourself falling too.

A special thanks to all those who made this possible. Especially my family for supporting my love of doing theatre at a technology school and my friends for hearing me talk about this show since D term. More than anything else, thank you to those who taught me enough about love to share that with others. As the first show I have directed, I could not have asked for a more perfect opportunity.
