DIRECTOR’S NOTE

Thank you all for coming to watch tonight whether it be from the Quad or from California, I am so proud to share this show with you all. This has been a crazy time and for sure was one for the records. Putting up a show in less than 7 weeks is always a struggle, but with a pandemic? Well let me tell you it was a lot harder but probably more rewarding. I would like to thank the Drama/Theatre department for all the support and helping us meet all the requirements so that everyone can be as safe as possible!

I am so proud of the work that everyone put in. To the actors, thank you for always brightening my day and giving 110% always, and for accepting the challenges given to us by the state of our world and making the best of it. To tech, thank you for putting in so many hours to paint, hang, build, and buy everything that was required so that we can make a beautiful show. Your work has not gone unnoticed! I am always so impressed with the things that a group of people can do. To Exec, thank you for coming with me on this journey! Making me smile and laugh when I’m stressed, and for always listening intently after the words “so…. Concept” left my mouth. I could not have done that without you and I’m so proud of the team I have built.

LOVE/SICK by John Cariani is a dark comedy that Mason came to me about earlier last year, and I am so glad that they did. This is a comedy about love, loss, and the trials of daily life. In a time where everything is so uncertain this show is very necessary. Let this be your release to laugh and be hopeful for the world that is to come! I hope you can see the comedy within the mundane not only within this show but within your daily life. Remember to be impulsive, sing from the top of your lungs, tell someone that you love them, ask the hard questions, find the fun in life, have a sandwich, get your ducks in a row, find yourself, and listen to the universe. Enjoy the show!

Thank you,
Katie Doucette
