Director's Note

When I first set out to do this show, I had one goal: we needed to have fun. In a year with theatre being under its own lockdown, we were prompted to consider what theatre truly was and what it meant to each of us. For me, theatre involves pushing boundaries and challenging perspectives through performing, all while working with a community that's become, my family. Although we had no clue what the exact shape of these shows was when we started, we set out to have thought-provoking conversations and to grow as artists. As you watch these productions, I implore you to look for the nuances and purposes behind the actions and decisions, to follow the story that unfolds and to be engulfed by it, and most of all... have fun and enjoy being a part of the community I love so dearly. We did it! We put on not one, but two shows at once during the pandemic! And these shows would not be possible without everyone involved, thank you everyone for putting your all into this (and dealing with my crazy visions). Finally, to my VOX family, as the lantern for my chapter at WPI begins to glow and I look back at my time here and ahead to my next steps, Goodbye... (until as soon as WPI lets me back on campus)!
